Professional Experience

The Rag Company

Walmart Marketplace Manager

2025 - Present

- Scaled Walmart Marketplace from $0 to a $1M+ annual run rate in under six months through aggressive catalog expansion and pricing optimization.
- Spearheaded the cross-departmental implementation of a Product Information Management (PIM) system, streamlining data for thousands of SKUs and improving operational scalability.
- Engineered a Looker KPI dashboard to consolidate metrics across all marketplaces, enabling real-time, data-driven revenue and margin optimization.
- Direct full P&L performance for the Walmart channel, managing advertising, promotions, and Buy Box eligibility for a multi-thousand-SKU catalog.
- Directly manage and mentor a team of 4, overseeing daily workflow, professional development, and KPI alignment to ensure 100% execution of marketplace strategies.

The Rag Company

Ecommerce Specialist

2024 - 2025

- Directed an omnichannel portfolio generating $37M in annual revenue, including a $22M Amazon business and $15M Shopify Plus storefront.
- Created a cross-platform Promotions and Deals Ledger to synchronize sales across Walmart, Amazon, and Shopify, ensuring catalog-wide coverage and maximizing yield for non-core SKUs.
- Optimized Amazon USA and Canada operations, managing FBA/FBM fulfillment and resolving high-impact compliance defects to protect eight-figure revenue streams.
- Enhanced conversion rates by building and auditing A+ Content and executing high-volume Lightning Deals during peak promotional periods.
- Resolved high-volume catalog and compliance defects including variation errors, suppressed listings, and brand conflicts that would otherwise block or limit six- and seven-figure revenue streams.
- Maintained a 100% successful completion rate across 24+ high-impact projects, including PIM implementation, cross-platform reporting suites, and catalog migrations, consistently meeting all technical and revenue deadlines.

Erbellum formerly Broomstick Co
